

Full Council Meeting 18th September 2024.

Agenda item 13

Correspondence

1. Sight Cymru invitation for their team to attend a meeting of town council to introduce members to their lottery funded "Widening Vision" project which would include the identification of initiatives that will enable Bargoed to become a more sight-friendly town.
2. Caerphilly County Borough Council briefing note on the update to the Bargoed Town Centre Audit. (circulated to members electronically)
3. One Voice Wales invitation to attend the National Conference at the Royal Welsh Showground 16th October (50th celebration of Community and Town Councils and 20th anniversary of One Voice Wales). [this is the same date as the full council meeting in October] – agenda circulated to members electronically.
4. CCBC Decarbonisation Team invitation to attend an event at Penallta House Thursday 19th September 6pm-8pm to discuss the Caerphilly Net Zero Focus Group to share ideas and learn about local efforts towards a greener future. To book a place:

5. Bull Dozer Films invitation to share details of an opportunity for young people to attend three film-making sessions in Cardiff in November.
6. Fly-tipping Action Wales communication about a new toolkit for community councils to use in an attempt to reduce fly tipping. Hard copy notices will follow the electronic resources. Members are being asked to support the initiative and make residents aware that they will get fines for inappropriate disposal of their household waste, and to widely circulate the notices.
7. Tenovus Cancer Care leaflet received along with an offer of someone coming to speak with Members to tell them more about the services they offer in the community. (circulated to members electronically)
8. Communication from Gwent Police about the Heddlu Bach Cadet programme with an offer to not only support town council events with the provision of volunteers, but if members would like to let them know of organisations or community projects that might welcome additional volunteer support they would welcome this also. (contact details with the clerk)
